

Advocacy
Service
Aberdeen

Your Life. Your Voice.

Advocacy Service Aberdeen continue to provide a free independent advocacy service to people living in Aberdeen City during the Coronavirus outbreak. We can provide a service to:

- People with a Mental Disorder and/or a Learning Disability.
- Carers.
- Victims of Domestic Abuse.
- People who have a social care budget (Self-Directed Support).
- Adults over 65 years old.

Advocacy Service Aberdeen are independent from all health and social care providers. We will help you know your rights and options relevant to your situation. We will help you to have your views understood and to have your voice heard.
